Guardmen May Be Released.An interpretation of Secretary of War Baker's order for the release of Guardsmen with dependents has been given byBrig. Gen. William E. Harvey, commanding the District militia at Camp Ordway.The soldier must show that he has dependents and that his source of income is limited. Income from investments large enough to support the dependents would bar the soldier's release.WEATHER CONDITIONS.District of Columbia and Maryland—Partly cloudy Saturday and Sunday without decided temperature change; gentle to moderate east and southeast winds.
Virginia—Local showers Saturday. Sunday partly cloudy; moderate easterly winds, probably becoming fresh over our portion.
The winds along the North Atlantic and Middle Atlantic coast will be moderate east to south, with fair weather; on the South Atlantic coast, moderate to fresh south, with gentle to light off the Florida

"SUB" SAILORS
GIVEN OVATION*Second Party of Deutschland Crew Visits Washington on Sight-seeing Tour.Six more members of the crew of the submarine Deutschland arrived here late yesterday afternoon and proceeded to "do" the Capital City. They will stay here until 3 o'clock this afternoon, and will take in, along with other sights today, the White House, where they may shake hands with the President. The half dozen sun-burned and hard-muscled under-boatmen were taken in tow by Gus Buchholz, proprietor of the Occidental Hotel, and E. F. and Carl Droop.
A ride through the parks and past the Federal buildings after twilight last night was enjoyed. Three automobiles were put under charter for the trip and each displayed prominently the American and the German flags.Cheers and shouts of greeting, often in German, were thrown at the men.
Wherever they stopped large crowds pressed about the automobiles and shouted congratulations and attempted to shake hands.One of the features of the itinerary last night was a visit to a local vaudeville theater, where the men willingly consented to go on the stage, where they were introduced by the theater manager.
S. J. Robinson. The applause was deafening, the audience rising en masse in a stirring ovation.Mirth stirred the audience when one of the crew, Albert Albers, briefly thanked the audience for their kind reception.
"We thank you very much for your kindness," he said, mistaking fire on the last work which doesn't well fit the Teutonic syllabification. It was told of Albers that Mr. Buchholz coached him on his speech of acceptance, but the tanned "wet" of the undersea couldn't grasp the last word.The party is composed of Albert Albers, Hans Muhle, Tony Born, Karl Pickert, Karl Steen and Ehrhardt Schneider.
It is confidently expected that Mr.
Buchholz will have as his guest soon Capt. Koening and other officers of the Deutschland. Mr. Buchholz and E. F.
Droop will go to Baltimore Sunday and visit the men whom they have welcomed here.The party is stopping at the Occidental Hotel."ROOKIES" MAY GET GREENBACKS TODAY"Payday today" is again the promise at Camp Ordway. But the militiamen are skeptical, for they have heard that before, but have failed to see the few greenbacks that should come their way in payment for services from June 12 to July 1.
Their pay is already a half month overdue, and many of them have not even enough money to pay carfare when they get a "pass," much less pay the rent, grocery bills and gas bills of wife and children.MARRIED BY MAIL.Soldier Weds "Girl He Left Behind."Douglas, Ark., July 14.—Private Louis Bansemmer, First New Jersey infantryman was married "by mail" today to Miss Ethel M. Sargent, a Newark society girl.
Miss Sargent went before a notary public in Newark and signed a marriage contract with Bansemmer. She mailed this to the private who signed it before a Douglas notary, thus completing the ceremony.$2.35 Lyndeburg and Return, July 15.

MAY DIVE TODAY*Stevadores and Crew Working at Top Speed to Load and Tug Craft.Baltimore, July 14.—With the stevedors and crew working like demons to load and tug the submarine Deutschland, Capt. Paul Koening's craft this morning was expected to leave before midnight tomorrow. Only superhuman speed could get the big submersible ready before that hour.In the face of official denials that an American will be shipped for the return voyage, the belief grows that a naturalized citizen will not fill the place of the sailor who, as told first in The Herald of yesterday, has decided to remain in America.
Reasons for the belief are:To have an American on board would protect the Deutschland immensely if about to be attacked by a British patrol boat.Should the submarine be sunk without warning—as it is certain it will be, if observed—a crisis between Great Britain and the United States would instantly be precipitated.An American would more definitely establish the claim that the Deutschland is a peaceful merchantman and not a potential war vessel.The Town CrierThe statement that the third recital of the pupils of Prof. and Mrs. H. Clay Murray was held last night, was an error, the concert having been held prior to that date."Black Billy Sunday" will deliver a ject for discussion this evening will be "Who Should Be Our Next President?" Elias J. Dukin and James Hugh Keeley compose the committee in charge.The Washington Equal Suffrage Council will hold its mid-summer meeting Tuesday evening, July 18, at 8 o'clock, at the New Elbott. The MOTHER MEETS DEATHPhiladelphia, July 14.—A handful of ice with which she sought to allay the intense suffering of her little ones brought death today to Mrs. Dorsey Zaslowsky.

Next to her home is the plant of the Globe Ice Cream Company, 413 South Perth street, a huge machine pounds ice into small bits.The Zaslowsky children complained of the heat. They were crying. The mother went next door just as the hammer in the plant was rising. A part of the machine caught her hair and dragged her head under the hammer.A moment later a piercing scream startled the workmen. They lifted the dying woman to the ground and tried to stop the flow of blood. Her hands still clutched the ice which she had sought for the little ones.Quickly the ambulance was summoned.
There was no need for the doctors when the mother reached the hospital.Touches Wire; Asks $30,000.The Potomac Electric Power Company is made defendant in a suit for $30,000 damages, instituted in the District Supreme Court yesterday by Barney Rubin, through Max Rubin. The plaintiff alleges that on April 14, on Bunker hill road, he was seriously injured by coming in contact with an electric wire which had fallen to the ground.COMMON DRINKING CUP UNDER BAN AT ORDWAYThe common drinking cup has been ta-boozed at Camp Ordway. Medical officers have decreed that it must not be used.The big water cooler in the Y. M. C.
A tent has no tin dipper now, and a sign advises each soldier to carry his own cup.Each man has a tin cup as a part of his equipment, and while the hot weather lasts cups strapped to belts will be the fashion at Camp Ordway. A suggestion that paper cups be issued to the men was looked down on by every "rookie" as not soldierly.NO BATHS AT ORDWAY.Fort Myer Fails to Supply Water for Showers.It was bathless Thursday at Camp Ordway yesterday, for the water supply at Fort Myer, which feeds the camp shower baths, became low and the water was ordered cut off by the commandant.The stoppage of water will be only temporary. The engineer at the post started the pumping engine and the men will be able to take their "showers" as usual today.Electrical railways of the United States represent a valuation of $70,000,000.
